What does the EAP cost?

There is no charge for services provided within the EAP. Your employer has provided short-term counseling, research, consultation, and referral services for you, your family and your significant others. When necessary, you may be referred to services that go beyond the scope of the EAP. Charges for services outside the EAP are your responsibility. In some cases, however, your health insurance may cover a portion of the cost of the services you require.

How confidential is the EAP?

No information, including your name, can be released without your written consent. The only exceptions are those required by law such as the duty of counselors to warn someone of a serious threat or the mandated reporting of child and elder abuse.

What is the Employee Assistance Program (EAP)?

The EAP is a confidential service designed to help employees and families with personal or work/life balance issues. Your employer is providing the EAP to help you toward an early resolution of most any personal concern.

What kinds of issues are addressed by the EAP?

- Stress Management
- Emotional Issues

What happens when I call the EAP?

Accessing the EAP is easy. Simply call the EAP. Counselors are available, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The EAP will gather some information, evaluate your needs, and suggest a possible plan of action.

What happens next?

The next step will depend on your unique situation. If you are calling about an emotional or family issue, the EAP counselor will always suggest a face to face meeting. This will give you a private opportunity to talk about your concerns in depth. This meeting will take place at a convenient, private office away from the work-site.

What about resources other than counseling?

The EAP has a variety of professionals available to help you free yourself from personal worries at work. Locating day care resources, financial consultations, and legal assistance, are all examples of how the EAP can assist you with work/life balance issues. The EAP also provides Health Coaching services for you and your loved ones on such issues as weight management, fitness and smoking cessation.
